President's Message - Sue Luque

Hi Everyone,
Wow, last year went by so quickly and now another year begins!!

I haven't done much quilting since I last saw you but hope to get back in the sewing room soon. Tony and I have been renovating a small cottage near Southampton so we didn't go to Florida this year. It has been 11 years since we did a renovation and I don't remember being so tired and sore all the time!!!

Oh well, it is coming along and will be ready to enjoy this summer. As it is coming together I am thinking I would like a different quilt, maybe in browns, black, beige and creams....we will see!

I'm looking forward to seeing you all on the 28th.

Sue

Program - Irene Rushworth & Judy Ferguson

Our guest speaker for January will be YOU the Members!!!!

We have such a wealth of experience and talent in our Guild! This month we are tapping into that talent by having interactive demonstrations of tips and techniques used in the quilt construction process!!!

I want to say a HUGE thank you to Mary Dodd, Ida Jenkins, Sue Luque and Jane Symmes for stepping up!!

Here's how you can help make this more fun!

Think about the processes you go through to put a quilt together.....from picking your fabric, piecing your pattern, choosing your favourite method to sandwich your quilt, your 'go to' quilting strategy and any oh-so-important finishing touches! Now, what is that one special tool you use in all this process that you could not live without?! Is it something that someone else might not know how to use? Bring it to the meeting to share.....The member who has the most unique tool will go home with a special little something!

Community Outreach Coordinator - Donna Thompson

The start of a new year is a great time to celebrate our past accomplishments and to look ahead to achieving new goals this year.

I will be introducing two 'sew-alongs' that are very easy, quickly done and perfect for scrap reduction. These are the highlights.....

- The first is a block for the 10th Anniversary of Quilts of Valour,
 - these ten inch log cabin blocks are going to be sewn and collected at Quilt Canada 2019. I will bring samples and the pattern.

“Supporting Injured Canadian Armed Forces members, past and present, with quilts of comfort”

- The second is small placemats used locally by Meals on Wheels for Seniors when they receive their Christmas dinner.
 - This is a great wee project to use your creativity and your scraps.
 - I will bring samples and the instructions.

Reminder - our Outreach sewing day is Thursday, February 21, 2019.

We will be sewing at the Trinity United Church in Acton starting at approx. 9 a.m.

Bring your sewing machine, sewing supplies and your lunch.

I will bring the material required to make the Crayon Tote Bags. Hope to see you there.
If you have any questions or require more information please contact me. Donna Thompson Outreach Coordinator

General Account:	$ 1391.45
Savings Account:	$ 11,612.20

Based on a motion passed at the executive meeting of November 19, 2018, the budget for Program was raised by $200. This will enable us to secure quality programming for our guild.

We look forward to an inspiring and creative year. Happy quilting.

Workshop – Ida Jenkins & Sue Phillips

Come to the Barn Quilt Block painting workshop on Saturday, February 2 from 10 AM till 2 PM.
You will learn the techniques of making a barn quilt block and take one home with you.
Marian Baidacoff will be the instructor!

Sign up at the January guild meeting.
Cost has not yet been determined, but is estimated to be about $20 - $35 per person.

Upcoming Workshop!!!

How would you like to learn more options for quilting?

In a workshop format, participants would bring a quilt top/flimsy or two. The more you bring, the more ideas you will get!! We will spend the time as a group discussing different ideas on how to quilt them (everyone is to bring their ideas to contribute to the discussion). Even the most experienced quilter can learn a trick or two!!!

There are many ways to quilt a quilt and by doing this exercise, the goal will be to get you moving if you are stalled on finishing your quilt top! You will come away with refreshed enthusiasm to finish your quilts. This is for any type of machine - both long arm and domestic, so everyone will have something to gain!!!

The date is confirmed for April 6 and Ida Jenkins will be the instructor!!!!

Cost is estimated to be $25 per person. In order to reduce the cost per person, your confirmation of interest is needed in January, and commitments required by February. Please see Ida at the January meeting or email her at: quilting4pleasure@gmail.com 2018 – 2019 Block of the Month!

Mary Dodd & Marian Baidacoff

Welcome to 2019!

We hope you had some time over the holidays to get some animal blocks done.

This month you we are providing the tree blocks that go in between the animals to make 12 inch rows.

Please remember to bring some evidence of what you have been working on.

It really does help to motivate you and others by seeing your ideas.

Meeting Cancellation Procedures

Since this winter is supposed to be full of bad weather, we need to be aware of HHQG Meeting Cancellation Procedures

- If the day of a Guild meeting has really bad weather, Judy Makinson and Sue Luque will decide if cancellation of the meeting is required.
- If so, an email will be sent to all Guild members around 5 pm as notification. It is your responsibility to check your email on bad weather days.
- Judy will notify Program Convenors ASAP so they can notify presenters.

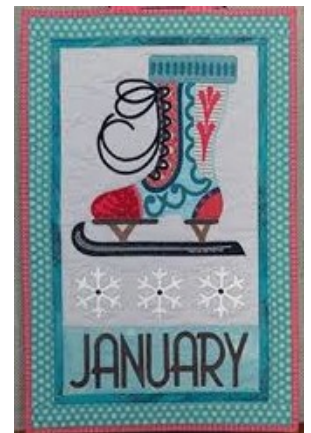

In the case of inclement weather, be your own judge. If the weather and road conditions are concerning to you and the meeting has not been cancelled, we trust that you will make the wisest and safest decision in our own situation.
